NEWS & NOTES

Pharmaceutical industry leaders gathered for the 4th year in a row at the ULM College of Pharmacy. The conference was held in the ULM Ballroom and featured a keynote address by Dr. Robert C. Johnson, President of the American Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association (APMA).

Dr. Arthur J. B. and Dr. Robert C. Johnson, President of the American Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association (APMA), were the keynote speakers at the 2013 ULM Pharmacy Conference. The conference was held in the ULM Ballroom and featured a keynote address by Dr. Robert C. Johnson, President of the American Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association (APMA).

ULM students and faculty members participated in a family fun day at the ULM Ballroom. The event featured a variety of activities, including a raffle, a silent auction, and a live performance by the ULM College of Pharmacy Band. The event was a great success and raised funds for the ULM College of Pharmacy.
